Medical Countermeasures (MCM) were requested from the Strategic National Stockpile (SNS) through the appropriate channels in Health and Human Services. On the subsequent days, CDPH will stand up it's warehouse and will simulate activation of the Medical Health Coordination Center (MHCC) using a small number of representatives at an offsite location. The exercise is a functional exercise; however real-time MCM distribution will not be tested.
- Each of the Bay Area cities and counties that are participating (Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Monterey, San Benito, San Francisco, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Solano, and Sonoma Counties and the cities of Berkeley and San Francisco) have varied levels of participation regarding activating their Emergency Operations Centers, Department Operations Centers, and Points of Distribution. Further each operational area has a varied level SNS drill testing and local hospital involvement.
